

IMMIGRATION COMMUNITY IMAGES

AN EXHIBITION ON IMMIGRATION

APPLICATION FOR ARTISAN ACCEPTANCE

Each year Notre Dame holds a forum focusing on a unique and engaging topic. This year the forum will be discussing immigration. In support of this annual forum and the topic of immigration, the Institute for Latino Studies has decided to hold a juried exhibition in Galeria America located in McKenna Hall. The show will be titled "Immigration Community Images" and will encompass all forms of immigration.

To submit work to be considered for the Immigration Community Images exhibition, please do the following:

- Submit up to 3 examples of your work by 5:00PM, August 1, 2007 c/o Lauren Magnifico via e-mail (Imagnifi@nd.edu) or on CD sent to:
